TRANSFER OF JURISDICTION

Dear Judge Tydingco-Gatewood:

Kelly Marie Reynolds was sentenced on October 16, 2002 to 60 months probation for Possession of Counterfeit U.S. Currency, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 472. Conditions were modified on December 4, 2002 to include 100 hours of community service, and to return to Day One, Phase One of the substance abuse treatment program. Ms. Reynolds paid the $100 special assessment fee on November 22, 2003. On July 11, 2005, Ms. Reynolds' term of supervision was transferred to the District of Minnesota to allow her to re-unite with her mother, and to pursue better employment opportunities.

On January 12, 2007, the U.S. Probation Office for the District of Minnesota notified this Officer that Ms. Reynolds was recently cited for Driving Under the Influence. In order to better supervise Ms. Reynolds and to address violation behavior directly, the Probation Office respected that jurisdiction of this case be transferred to their district.
